

BOARD MEMBER QUALIFICATION

A person is legally qualified to become a member of a school board if they are a United States Citizen, complies with the provisions of law relating to the registration of voters and is a qualified elector residing within the school district, at least 18 years of age and not otherwise disqualified.

In accordance with state law, no elective county, municipal, or state officer or holder of any other office, whose duties are incompatible or inconsistent with duties of the school board member will be eligible for such membership.

Adoption date: August 10, 1987

Amended: October 8, 2007

Reviewed February 12, 2018